LIPPITT'S SPECIFIC. For the Cure of Dysentery, Diarrhaa, and Summer Complaints. In presenting this justly celebrated Medicine to the public we make no rash assertions of its efficacy, nor is any hope held out to the afflicted which facts do not warrant.

This remedy having been for years, used in this place the cure of the above diseases and those appertaining to the same class, the proprietor has been induced to offer it on a more extensive scale, with a view to lessen the amount of human suffering. I have never known it to fail when the directions have been strictly adhered to. Many uscless nostrums have been palmed upon the public, and I hesitated for some time, until thoroughly convinced of

Extract of a letter received from S. J. Carroll. BALTIMORE, January 10th, 1851. WM. H. LIPPITT, Esq., -Dear Sir:-I have no hesitation i saying that your Specific is one of the best Medicines extant for Dysentery, Diarrhwa, &c. You possibly may recollect my case; if it has escaped your memory I will give you briefly the facts. I had tried every thing that I had seen used, but with little success. And after using enough to start twenty-five Homeopathic M. D.'s, I began to despair, when you kindly offered me your invaluable Medicine, which Yours truly, J. S CARROLL. cured me effectually.

WILMINGTON, N. C., August 14th, 1851. WM. H. LIPPITT, Esq.,—Dear Sir:—I have used your Specific in two cases in my family for Dysentery. In one 4 papspoonfuls effected a complete cure-in the other, three had the like effect. Respectfully, &c., THOS. LORING, Ed. Commercial. HARRELL'S STORE, New Hanover county, N. C., }

SAVANNAH, Ga., December 26th, 1851 .- Mr. WM. H. LIP-PITT,-Dear Sir :- It is with pleasure I acknowledge the wonderful effects of your Medicine for curing Diarrhoca or Bowel complaint, as I am satisfied it was the means, under God, of saving the life, first of my Child and then of my Brother .the taxes due thereon for the year 1851 and the costs of advertising:

As my Brother was given up by two of the most eminent Physicians in this place, Drs. Richardson and Gregg, and when I low, he said I might to satisfy myself that I had left nothing untried, but he did not think that Medicine would be of any use to him. But thank God he was mistaken, as we saw the salutary effects in 21 hours, and in ten days he was able to be out of bed. I remain yours, very truly and gratefully, WM. BAILEY.

Napoleon's Attempt to Commit Sufefde, In Montholon's history of the captivity of Napoleon at St. Helena, it is recorded that he twice attempted self-destruction -once early in his career, and again in 1815. On the first occasion his life was saved by Demasis, a former comrade in an artillery regiment. Napoleon was then in Paris-depressed and suffering from illness. His mother having fled from Corsica, was at Marseilles, without subsistence, had written to him for aid. Napoleon' had nothing but an assignat of an hundred sous .-

Relating this adventure to Montholon, Napoleon' "In a state of dejection I went out, as if urged to suicide by an animal instinct, and walked along the quays, feeling my weakness, but unable to conquet it. In a few more moments I should have thrown myself into the water, when I run against an individual dressed like a simple mechanic, and who recognized me, threw himself on my neck, and cried, Is it you, Napoleon? What joy to see you again!' It was Demasis, a former comrade of mine in the artillery regiment. He had emigrated and had returned to France in disguise to see his aged mother. He was about to go, when stopping, he said, 'What

The end of the romance is as eccentric as the begining. For fifteen years Napoleon saw no more of Mr. Examiner-" What was your occupation be- his creditor. In April 1815, when Napoleon was at the head of his army, preparing to attack the allies, his Marshals demanded an interview with him. They were opposed to his plan of operations, and looked upon an atwill no doubt be permitted to continue to discharge tempt to re-enter Paris as hopeless. A Stinging Rebuke to Fanaticism,

At the celebration of the 4th in Oswego, N. Y., the Mayor, Mr. Colver, made an address, in which he launched out in the usual strain of hypocritical demagogues, about rum and slavery. The audience were astonished at such a speech on such an occasion, for they had met without distinction of party, creed, or profession, to join a national celebration. But the Mayor met with a rebuke on the spot, from Jacob Richardson, Esq., which must have made him feel ting to recur to the sentiments of two of the most like shrinking into his boots, or bolting the "settleeminent men that existed at that time, of the merits of ment." We give his remarks as reported in the N. Y.

PRESERVING FRUIT IN BOTTLES .- Strawberries. raspberries, blackberries, currants, peaches, in fact retain its natural flavor, with but little labor or expense. The following is an excellent mode:

" Fill the bottles quite full with fruit not quite rine: the cork always damp. To prevent termentation turn each bottle half round twice or thrice a week for two or three weeks; after that they will need no further care. The corks should be soaked in water two or three days before being used." Another mode is to tie the corks before putting the bottles in the water. The heat expels the air from the fruit. As soon as the bottles are cool enough, apply the sealing-wax. The secret consist in exhausting the air from the bottles and making the corks airience in sucking.
